

CLASS NEWS

Week of: 3/21/2025

A note from the teacher:

We are nearing the end of the year! One more quarter to go! We have a lot of things planned for the end of the year so keep a look out on the upcoming events for them. Please continue to practice spelling words with your child, and make sure they are reading nightly for their AR points.

Mrs. Behrends

Upcoming events:

- 03/28- Noon Dismissal
- 03/15- Mid Quarter
- 03/16- Cardinals Baseball Game
- 03/16-03/22- Spring/Easter Break

Looking ahead:

READING/ELA	We are doing well with our reading stations this semester. Each group will be doing a guided reading book with me and then rotating through the other reading and language lessons. We are almost finished with our second book
MATH	2nd grade is learning how to tell time to the nearest hour, half hour, quarter hour, and five minute intervals. 3rd grade just finished their chapter on fractions, and will be moving onto measurement.
SCIENCE/SOCIAL STUDIES	The children have been working hard on their research of someone who positively impacted American History. They are creating a slide show and presenting it to the class.
RELIGION	The students are learning about the church and their faith. Second Grade is working on their preparation for 1st Communion
SPELLING	Each class will still be getting weekly spelling lists on Monday and will test on Friday, with the weekly spelling packet coming home on Monday. Please study with kids nightly!
